Day 01 Arrive Cameron Highland

Upon arrival, check in to hotel. Free at leisure.

Day 02 Mossy Forest Discovery (B/L/D)

After breakfast, proceed with Mossy Forest Discovery. The journey begins with a short annotations stop at the Sungai Palas Tea Plantation which is one of the largest plantation in South East Asia before driving up to the highest peak of Cameron Highlands (Mount Brinchang located at height of 6666 feet above sea level). Climb up The Viewing Tower where you will be amazed with magnificent view of the surrounding area with fresh and cool air. An interpretive trek into Mossy Forest will reveal some of the exotic montance floras such as carnivorous Pitcher Plant, Wild Ginger, primitive Ferns and wild Orchids. Moreover, you can learn some basic forest survival techniques and other native plants from our experienced guide. (Mossy Forest is also known as the cloudy forest where usually enveloped in mist and gives you a feeling like you're in a fairy tale land) A short drive down from the mountain will bring you to the oldest Tea Factory in Malaysia. A tour of the factory will be conducted by factory guide. Have a cup of tea at The "Ummph" Tea Café (at own expenses), where you will be fascinated by the wide range of tea offered with panoramic view of the plantation. Finally our guide will lead you to the last stop of the tour which is Butterfly Farm. Here you can observe some beautiful species of butterflies including the renowned Raja Brooke and various kind of insects and snakes.

Day 03 Depart Cameron Highlands (B)

Free to explore the local fruit & vegetable markets on your own or you may have your last minute shopping before departure.
